Sore No More Pain Relief to Showcase Innovative Products at Natural Products Expo West - Booth 2916

Anaheim, CA - March 5, 2024 - Sore No More Pain Relief is excited to announce its participation in the highly anticipated Natural Products Expo West, set to take place from March 13 to March 16, 2024, at the renowned Anaheim Convention Center in Anaheim, CA. As a distinguished exhibitor, Sore No More invites attendees to visit Booth 2916 to discover cutting-edge pain relief solutions.

Engage with Sore No More at Booth 2916:

Attendees are encouraged to explore the Sore No More booth, where they can learn about the company's commitment to wellness for 50 years and discover a range of innovative pain relief products. Sore No More's team will be on hand to provide insights and information about their offerings, as well as an exclusive show special available only during the expo.

Sore No More PLUS Pain Relief Samples:

As part of the expo experience, Sore No More is delighted to offer attendees complimentary samples of their popular Sore No More PLUS Pain Relief. These samples are specifically crafted to provide relief to tired feet, ensuring attendees can navigate the trade show floor with comfort and ease.

About Natural Products Expo West:

Natural Products Expo West, a key event in the New Hope Network family of brands, attracted over 65,000 registered attendees and featured 3,000 exhibiting companies at the Anaheim Convention Center in March 2023. The expo showcased the latest in natural and organic products, highlighting industry trends and innovations.
